

1. How are languages classified in order from most distant to closest relative languages?

2. What is a language called that does not have any known language relatives? Provide an example.

3. What is a lingua franca? _____
4. What language have we talked about is the official language in many countries around the world and why?

5. Classify English by family _____, branch _____, & group _____
6. What first happens to a language when groups of people migrate to a new region? _____
7. What happens to that language over time if it is isolated? _____
8. What is a language used for government business? _____
9. What do a people need to have for their language to survive? _____

Contrast folk and popular culture.

Characteristic	Folk	Popular
10. place & time
11. diffusion
12. small or large

13. Describe how culture starts. _____
14. What is a taboo? Provide an example. _____
15. What his an example of folk culture going popular worldwide? _____
16. What are some examples of American popular culture that have gone worldwide? _____